From The Hound of Death and The Golden Ball and Other Stories. A doctor meets a nun traumatised by the Great War. ... Although it is a tale of the occult, this story could almost be considered science fiction - a genre Agatha Christie professed a keen interest in when interviewed by Nigel Dennis in 1956.

The Hound of Death by Agatha Christie - Agatha Christie

The Hound of Death collects Agatha Christie's exercises in the tale of the occult, with the exception of the incredible "The Witness for the Prosecution," a brilliant piece of pure crime fiction that sees Dame Agatha at her very best. Some of the tales collected here are also part of The Witness for the Prosecution and Other Stories, so I reread them for the second time--and with much pleasure ...
